CARDINAL*Gives Valid Reasons For Opposing Woman Suffrage.

Cardinal Gibbons, who last week received the Suffragettes en route to Washington, but who is hostile to the movement, gives the following reasons for his opposition to woman suffrage:

"I am hostile to woman suffrage, always have been, and will continue to be. Someone is always asking me why I oppose woman suffrage. I am always wondering why they ask me that question. I have written about the subject for years; I have preached about it, and I will continue to urge that nothing be done which will take woman out of her proper sphere. When a woman enters the political arena she goes outside the sphere for which she was intended. She gains nothing by that journey. On the other hand, she loses that exclusiveness, respect and dignity to which she is entitled in her home. To debar woman from such pursuits is not to degrade her. To restrict her field of action to the gentler avocations of life is not to fetter her aspirations after the higher and the better. It is, on the contrary, to secure to her not equal rights so-called, but those super-eminent rights that can not fail to endow her with a sacred influence in her own proper sphere; for as soon as woman trenches on the domain of man, she must not be surprised to find that the reverence once accorded her has been in part or wholly withdrawn."

CONDITION IMPROVED.

Corporal William Hutchinson, of the police department, who has been ill of rheumatism, was reported considerably better of this week. Sergeant Martin McGuire, who has been confined to his home with the grip; John Stengel, James Savage and Dave Dolan, also on the sick list, are greatly improved and will all soon be on duty. Pat Nolan, Con Crowley, Harry Riehl and Charles Albert, of the fire department, are recovering from illness that has confined them to their home.

CONCERT AND MINSTREL.

A concert and minstrel show will be given for the benefit of St. Augustine's church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 26 and 27, at St. Augustine's Hall, 1308 West Broadway. Those who have witnessed the colored minstrels in the past couple of years can amply testify that their performance is worth going miles to see.

WALNUT THEATER.

With a credential of having played for 125 nights at McVickers Theater in Chicago, "The Divorce Question" will be next week's attraction at the Walnut-street Theater, starting with Sunday's matinee, with every prospect of continuing the record breaking business it has done elsewhere. An unusually strong cast for a popular priced house is noted in this company. To persons who love to have their emotions worked up well "The Divorce Question" will most strongly appeal. It was written for the purpose of showing the evils of divorce, and it shows them by presenting to us a man and woman who have contracted a second marriage and have cast off the children of their first marriage.

Herbert Lockwood and Mrs. Rogers Manners have settled their marital difficulties in the divorce court, go their respective ways, remarry and raise new families. The two children of the former union are placed in the care of poor relatives, whose neglect and cruelty finally drive the boy and his sister into the streets. Earning a precarious living by selling newspapers, they gradually sink into the muck. The boy, a dope fiend, the girl in the clutches of a "cadet." The opening of the drama takes place in the sacristy of the church, where Herbert, the drug addict, and the girl have sought the protection of Father Jerome. By a strange coincidence Lockwood and Mrs. Manners are both at the church. The revelation that these two children are their own comes as a shock. Well-bred, unsexed children they are willing to take into their lives, but not these wretched beings of the gutter. How the selfish parents are brought to a realization of duty, with conscience awakened and hearts refilled with love, is told in a moving series of scenes and episodes by a company whose like has not in recent years graced any popular priced theater. That admirable actress, Charlotte Granville, is cast as Mrs. Manners, and gives the well-poised, clearly drawn characterization that always marks her work and manages to win sympathy for this misguided mother, torn between her two families. As Maimie, the unfortunate girl, Virginia Pearson has a part of few lines, but she handles it well, and her facial play is particularly effective. John Kline, of the Columbia Players, is cast as Father William Jerome. To his lot falls most of the purposeful speeches and he offers a vigorous, sympathetic performance. A part faithful and horrible in its realism is the Dope Doe of William V. Mong. Charles C. Burnham makes a delightful Irish sexton, and Seldon Lewis presents a finished characterization as Lockwood. Burnette Radcliffe and Halworth Stark complete the excellent company. This play also has in its cast a Louisville girl, Virginia Pearson, who is well known here as the result of other appearances in "Under Southern Skies" and "A Fool There Was." Miss Pearson returns to her home city as one financially interested in the success of "The Divorce Question."

ENVIABLE*Position Held by St. Louis
Medical University School.

St. Louis University Medical School enjoys the unique distinction of having two of her professors occupying the position of President in the two principal medical associations of the country. On last Wednesday Dr. Bliss Potter Lyon was elected to the Presidency of the National Association of American Medical Colleges, comprising seventy-five leading medical colleges of the country inclusive of all the big universities. Dr. Lyon is Dean of the St. Louis University Medical School, which is under the direct control of the faculty. It is but a short time since Dr. Young Brown was elected President of the Southern Medical Association. These two distinctions coming to two of her professors places the university in a very enviable position in the educational world, while they also testify to the quality of the medical school which has the good fortune to number them among her faculty. Catholics may well feel proud of St. Louis University Medical School, which has made a very enviable record for itself in the medical world.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH.

The feast of St. Patrick will be observed at St. Michael's church, 220 Brook street, on Sunday, March 16. There will be solemn vespers and benediction in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, when the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Father Patrick Monaghan, secretary to Bishop O'Donoghue. Following these services there will be the special blessing with the relic of St. Patrick, the only one in Kentucky. Father O'Connor invites all to avail themselves of this opportunity, as this blessing is conferred only once during the year.

FORTY HOURS' PRAYER.

The Forty Hours' prayer will open with a high mass tomorrow morning at St. Cecilia's church, Twenty-fifth and St. Cecilia streets, continuing until Tuesday. This is one of the city's large parishes, and doubtless the church will be thronged at all the services. Rev. Father Craney, the pastor, will conduct the services and will be assisted by a number of the local clergy.

ANOTHER GREAT MISSION.

Rev. Xavier Sutton, C. P., of Chicago, and Rev. Christopher Schiesel, C. P., of the Sacred Heart Retreat, this city, will tomorrow close the most successful mission ever held in the Fort Wayne diocese. The mission has been in progress for two weeks at St. Patrick's church at Fort Wayne, and an immense congregation attended all the services, which were deeply impressive, resulting in many additions to the one true fold.

CARLTONS COMING.

Frank and Kate Carlton, the well known Irish vaudeville sketch team, will open up a week's engagement at the Hopkins Theater tomorrow afternoon, and their rendition of the old songs is a revelation and treat in these days of ragtime and mush melodies. The little sketch of the Carltons has been indorsed by Irish societies everywhere, their portrayal of Irish characters being particularly clean and true to life.

SURPRISED.*Rev. Bernard Otting, S. J.,
Head of St. Louis University.

The election of Rev. Bernard J. Otting, S. J., to the Presidency of St. Louis University was announced Wednesday. Father Otting, who was one of three candidates suggested for the position, was chosen six weeks ago, yet he declared the announcement of his election was as great a surprise to him as to many of his friends. He was selected to fill the vacancy created by the promotion of Rev. Alexander J. Burows, who was recently made Provincial of the Missouri diocese. The new head of the university was born in Cincinnati August 15, 1859, and received his early education in St. Paul's parochial school and St. Xavier's College in that city. In 1881 he entered the Society of Jesus at Florissant, Mo. He left the latter institution in his junior year and took the normal course, fitting himself as an instructor, and later he went to Detroit, where he taught school three years. After leaving Detroit Father Otting took up the study of theology in Ona, Spain, where he was ordained in the priesthood. He has been an instructor of theology at St. Louis University fifteen years and has served as dean of the faculty of the institution since July of last year. Father Otting is a brother of Rev. William H. Otting, Vice President of the University of Detroit.

COMPLETED.*Hibernians of New York
Now Own Splendid Building.

Close to 2,000 members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of New York City were permitted a private inspection Wednesday night of last week of the new structure erected by the order at 116th street and Fifth avenue. At noon the following day the structure was handed over to the lessees, the Fifth Avenue Amusement Company. An address of welcome was delivered to the members by the Rev. William McLoughlin, National Spiritual Director of the order. Other speeches were given by the Rev. John Dooley, Jeremiah O'Connor, Chairman of the Board of Directors; Eugene J. Flood, Secretary; Thomas Kelly, Martin Varlin, Michael Farrell, Thomas M. Clancy, William Cahill, Terrence Connolly, Peter Lennon, P. E. Murphy, John McAdam, Patrick J. McNulty, Michael J. P. Carolan and Timothy Healy.

The architecture of the building is Georgian in style, with arches and pilasters forming a perfectly symmetrical front. The interior decoration is Louis XVI. style. The balcony and gallery are surrounded by cast-iron arches, the result being that every seat in the house has a clear view of the stage. The building is a three-story structure and has a seating capacity of 1,500. The site cost $205,000 and the building was erected at a cost of $200,000. A large rathskeller will be shortly opened in the basement by the lessees. The rental income is to be used by the order for benevolent purposes.

HURT ON HEAD.

While passing out Fourth street Tuesday evening Dan Fitzgerald, residing at 1818 Baird street, was struck on the head by a brick dropped from the third floor of the Stark's building being erected at Fourth and Walnut, and knocked insensible. He was carried into the building and medical assistance summoned. Examination showed that he had suffered a severe scalp wound, narrowly escaping a fractured skull. Assisted by Patrolman Cradick he was removed to his home.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Next Friday night the regular monthly meeting of the Central Committee, C. K. of A., will be held in St. Mary's Hall. As President Schalda will then announce the standing committees for the year, he requests that all delegates be present. It is also intimated that the business for that night will be of more than ordinary interest.

WILL BE HARD TO BEAT.

A. B. Kilkelly, for many years with the American Tobacco Company, Eighteenth and Broadway, and widely known as "Smoke Kelly," has announced his candidacy for Constable in the Eighth Magisterial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. He has a legion of warm supporters who feel confident he will win his race.

GET TEN DAYS.

Martin Connors, Joseph Hines and J. P. Connolly, members of the local police force, will return to their boats Monday after their ten days' vacation. Those whose ten days will include St. Patrick's day are A. P. Murphy, J. T. Ahern, Luke Moran, R. J. Murray, Joseph Reagan and Patrick Finn. M. J. Sullivan and Thomas McGuire will get their ten days the last of the month.

INDORSE BEN JOHNSON.

The Democratic members-elect of the next House from Kentucky and Senator-elect James O. Sweeney formally signed an indorsement of Representative Ben Johnson for Chairman of the National Congressional Committee. It is understood Mr. Johnson will be elected and will direct the fight to control the House in 1914.

KNIGHTS' CLUB HOUSE.

The Knights of Columbus have been signally lavish in expenditures for this purpose, having erected in many of the larger cities, as well as many of the smaller ones, magnificent temples to their credit and honor. Denver has a home costing $200,000, St. Louis one costing
